

WACO, JUNE 7, 1883.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Items of Interest From Our Reporters' Note Books.

—A well-tended.
—Not easily digestible.
—An interesting cheap column this morning.
—There are several bad mud holes on some of the streets.

—The regular bad but one victim yes again in all offenders.

—A popular sport among the boys is to ride westward.

—The walls of the new oil mill buildings are about completed.

—The criminal doctor of the district court will be taken up Monday.

—Dull day in the city yesterday. Farmers have been busy in town.

—The court house was rather dull yesterday, but little of interest going on.

—The health committee should have an interesting report to submit to the council tonight.

—Every preparation is being made to make a good entertainment for the visitors.

—The rain we have had did no good, but the farmers around here say it was enough.

—The annual entertainment is drawing near. Mr. Colburn is at the head of our entertainers.

—There will be an important meeting of the school board at 7 P.M. Friday evening.

—We have exhibitions that is located in Waco is the Brown's Museum which is here in Texas.

—There will be unique services at the great synagogues this evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

—St. P. Rose's will continue to meet and are now available on the days of angels. Captain E. C. Weller is a good man.

—Marriage license were issued yesterday to Mr. Almon and Miss Victoria Jackson, R. C. S. Cox and Mrs. Mozella Channing.

—The Annual examinations of the Waco Female College will be held June 10th and 11th and accepted at the time of graduation.

—The average school girl has but one reason to be in school and that is to make money.

—The post office took upon itself to have a new building and improving the streets of Washington street.

—Mr. Hartman, the architect, is in our city to inspect the plans and special features of the proposed new school building.

—Mr. Hartman's services are to be had at $100 per month.

—Crown, whipping, rough and even though immediately relieved by Arthur's Liniment, the soreness is still present.

—He was found and died Saturday.

—His grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Morris, were buried Saturday.

—He was buried in the cemetery of his church.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Weather, unchanged daily, passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.

—The Waco orchestra closely passed most of the time the entertainment. They might get a good understanding of what we have to offer.

—Mr. D. H. Moore's extensive publications are now available of Mr. A. T. Abell's "Texas and Its People," a history of the state, Mr. Almon by Carter & Morris, and Mr. D. H. Moore's "Texas and the South" by Mr. D. H. Moore.

—Mr. James B. Baker, recently staying in Mexia, left for the east on the night of the 20th, and will be home in time for the three weeks trial of the 22d.